LIBER ESTATES

Our gently-sloping, west-facing riverfront estate in Osoyoos, and meticulously tended vines create the fruit that, through the alchemy of winemaking, ultimately become our beautiful wines. We harvest from our very special organic estate grapes or with fruit from our partner vineyards. The wines are gently aged in stainless steel or French Oak to allow the quality of the fruit to show through.

Winemaker Blair Gillingham focuses primarily on Grüner Veltliner, shaped by his time working in Austria. But when a vintage truly stands out, he'll occasionally have one-off wines to share. The goal is approachable but ageable wines. Observatory Wines looks east over Okanagan Lake at 400 meters of elevation with views north to Peachland, east to Okanagan Mountain and south to Naramata.
